THE BELLS OF CHRISTMAS BY VINCE TRANI & ROBERT WENDEL

The bells of Christmas re-mind you and me that Santa's checking his list to see
Which children on his "good" list will be and have lots of presents under the tree.

And every day the doorbell rings and every day the postman brings
Boxes full of wonderful things, and colorful holiday greetings.
The bells of Christmas ring out sweet and clear, filling the air with holiday cheer,
Thrilling the hearts of all who hear as Christmas day draws near.

Up in the steeple the church bells sound calling to us below on the ground,
While shoppers hurry and scurry a-round, hoping the perfect gift will be found.
The bells of Christmas ring out loud and strong, filling the air with their holiday song,
Reminding us all it won't be long 'til Christmas time is here.

On every street corner a bell rings a-way, but in it's clamor it's trying to say:
"Give something to charity on your way, so all will have a great Christmas day."
The bells of Christmas ring out high and low as their Christmas blessings they be-stow,
The jing'ling of sleigh-bells in the snow says Christmas time is here.

Ding Dong Ding Dong, Ding Dong Ding Dong, Ding ---- Dong----

And when your children all have grown and you are feeling all alone.
A Christmas bell rings in your phone to tell you they're all coming home!
The bells of Christmas may stop, but then they start their ringing out once again.
They seem to sing a sort of amen to peace on earth, good will to men.

They seem to sing a sort of amen. A-men. A-men. Peace on earth, Good will to Men.!
